BLUEPRINT FOR A BETTER ECONOMY

The Future Economy Day is a dedicated business-to-business conference day held alongside the Hamburg Sustainability Conference on July 1, 2026. Bringing together leaders from finance, industry, manufacturing, and trade, the event focuses on practical solutions to accelerate sustainable economic transformation. Designed by business for business, the Future Economy Day turns ambition into action—advancing sustainable finance, driving decarbonization, and building cross-sector partnerships that connect private-sector leadership with global sustainability goals.

It is organized by the Hamburg Chamber of Commerce, ICC Germany, and DZ Bank, with support from UNECE, the Climate Champions, econsense, and Hamburg Sustainability Conference gGmbH.
